Message from the General Chair and Program Chairs

The proceedings on “Community Development in ASEAN” are written as the products of the international conference on community development in ASEAN which was co-organized by the University of Muhammadiyah Malang and Royal Academy of Cambodia. It was held on March 22-23, 2017.

This document is to review the contents of all speakers’ thoughts presented at the conference dealing with religion and culture, humanities and social sciences, the ASEAN economic community and the politics, as well as security technology. This document reflects the efforts of national and international speakers who represented some universities across the countries in ASEAN, such as: Indonesia, Malaysia, Singapore, Thailand, and Cambodia. They fulfilled their activities in the fields of research.

The research findings presented by the speakers at the conference are expected to help promote further scientific research and encourage inexorably further impetus.
